

Parenting Kids on Social Media

Top Ten Questions to Start a Conversation About Social Media with your Kids

1. What do you think are the three (two?) best social media platforms? Why?
2. What would you do if a conversation got ugly on social media?
3. Do you think a social media account should be private? Why or why not?
4. Have you ever seen anyone get cyberbullied? What did you do? What did others do?
5. How many of your friends are on social media? What are the popular platforms you use?
6. What do you know about a digital footprint?
7. You know you're not supposed to talk to strangers in real life -what about strangers online?
8. What rules have you made for yourself about how to behave online? Do you follow them?!?
9. What would you change about social media if you could?
10. What makes you laugh when you're on social media?